

His Dragons drew the top-seeded team for the third straight year. West lost to Roosevelt 78-54 two years ago and was nipped by Dunbar 66-65 in overtime last year.

Yesterday Kaylor even sent assistant Mickey Morgan up to draw, in an attempt to break the jinx. No luck.

"Anyone need a good assistant," the veteran Kaylor kidded. "Next year I'm going to bring my grandchildren in here and have the draw."

Kaylor's 9-6 Dragons will meet Roth on the tournament's opening night, Monday, Feb. 24, at 8:30 p.m. in the University of Dayton fieldhouse.

Clipped By:

jdjd1969

Sat, Dec 1, 2018